Arrival Guidelines

Timed Pass Entrance

Use the Library of Congress Thomas Jefferson Building (10 First Street SE) driveway level entrance, located beneath the large exterior staircase. Coat check and restrooms are available on this level near the welcome desk.

Security

Everyone who enters the Library must go through airport-like security. It is recommended that guests arrive up to 15 minutes prior to their scheduled entry time to process through security.

Timed Pass Scanning

After clearing security, please continue straight ahead to the Ground Floor Welcome Desk where Library staff will greet you. Please bring your digital (or printed) pass to be scanned with a touchless device when you arrive at the Library. Passes may not be sold or transferred. Passes are valid only for the issued date and time and are void if altered.

Delayed Arrival

If you arrive more than 15 minutes past your scheduled entry time, building access may still be granted pending available space capacity.

Accessibility

The Thomas Jefferson Building is fully accessible. The Ground Level/Driveway entrance is the designated ADA entrance for all visitors. Wheelchairs for loan while you are in the building. Elevators provide access to all floors.

Face Coverings

Face coverings are encouraged but not required.

Social Distancing

Individuals, household groups or those visiting together must maintain a safe social distance of at least 6 feet from other visitors. Those visiting as a group should remain together. Visitors under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult. Social distancing signage and directions will be found throughout our facilities.

Health & Safety

Please wash and/or sanitize hands frequently during your visit and practice good hygiene. Hand sanitizing stations will be available throughout our facilities, including at entry.

Anyone who is feeling unwell or has a fever should arrange to visit another day. All visitors must go through health screening self-assessment protocols established by the Library.

Parking

Parking is limited on Capitol Hill. The best way to arrive is by public transportation. The closest Metro stations are Capitol South (Blue/Orange/Silver Line—a two block walk) or Union Station (Red Line—a half-mile walk).
